

8 Rules for Capitalization

1. Capitalize the first word of a sentence. For example: Everyone likes the new exhibit at the museum.
2. Capitalize the pronoun "I". For example: The birthday present is just what I wanted.
3. Capitalize place names: countries, continents, oceans, states, provinces, towns, cities, and street names. For example: Namibia, Rwanda, and Gabon are all countries in Africa.
4. Capitalize the days of the week, months of the year, and holidays. For example: Cinco de Mayo is a Mexican holiday celebrated on the 5th of May.
5. Capitalize the words in a title, except for prepositions and articles unless they are the first word in the title. For example: I've always wanted to read The Wind in the Willows.
6. Capitalize people's first, middle, and last names. For example: Johann Sebastian Bach was a great composer.
7. Capitalize the first word in a quoted sentence. For example: As Abraham Lincoln said, "Four score and seven years ago, our forefathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation."
8. Capitalize titles of address, like "Mr.", "Mrs.", "Jr." and "Dr.", and place modifiers like "St." and "Ave." For example: When my brother got sick, my mother took him to see Dr. Green.
